

NEOLINE

Neoline announces changes in the devices update process.

Now the latest firmware and GPS database updates are available on our official website in the Updates section. To download the latest versions, you should select the category and model of the device in relevant sections. To be notified on latest devices' software updates there is also access to e-mail subscriptions.